MRS STOKELY CARMICHAEL

[redacted] Overseas Shipping Company, Incorporated, International Freight Forwarders and Export Packing, 2221 Adams Place, N.E., Washington, D.C., advised on December 11, 1968, [redacted] the shipment of household furnishings belonging to Stokely Carmichael and his wife, Miriam Makeba, to Conakry, Guinea. He advised the furnishings, amounting to about twelve thousand pounds, had been removed from their Washington, D.C. residence during mid-November, 1968, preparatory to shipment by boat to Conakry from Baltimore, Maryland, during the early part of December, 1968. Prior to actual shipment, they were stored temporarily in Washington, D.C. at an overseas shipping company warehouse.

b7D

[redacted] advised that as of December 11, 1968, half of the furnishings belonging to Carmichael and Makeba had been put on board the boat "African Rainbow" in Baltimore, being handled by the Farrell Lines, Incorporated. He related that prior to departure from Washington, D.C., Carmichael and Makeba purchased a new household refrigerator, two washing machines and a range stove, which they also desired included with the shipment to Conakry. As of December 11, 1968, all of these ordered appliances had not arrived for shipment. Consequently, [redacted] advised when the remainder of the appliances arrive for shipment, they will be included with the other half of the remaining furnishings and taken to New York City. Upon arrival in New York City, they will be loaded onto the "African Rainbow" then due in New York City at about that time. The "African Rainbow" is expected to sail from New York City on December 17, 1968.

APPENDIX

ORGANIZATION OF AFRO-AMERICAN
UNITY, INCORPORATED

On June 28, 1964, Malcolm X Little, founder and leader of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI), publicly announced the formation of a new, all-Negro, militant civil rights action group to be known as the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU), with himself as Chairman. This announcement was made at a public rally held by the MMI in the Audubon Ballroom, Broadway and 166th Street, New York City.

A printed and published statement of basis OAAU aims read by Malcolm X at this meeting indicates that it shall include "all" people of African descent in the Western Hemisphere, as well as "our" brothers and sisters on the African continent. It is patterned after the "letter and spirit" of the Organization of African Unity established (by African Heads of States) at Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, in May, 1963.

A recording of the remarks of Malcolm X at this meeting indicates that the aim of the OAAU is to eliminate differences between Negroes so they can work together for "human rights," while the initial objective is to "internationalize" the American civil rights movement by taking it to the United Nations. Little condemned the nonviolent civil rights movement and claims that Negroes should be taught to protect themselves, when and if necessary. The OAAU will sponsor a program for Negroes in education, politics, culture, economics, and social reform.

Malcolm X was assassinated on February 21, 1965, while addressing an OAAU rally at the Audubon Ballroom, New York City.

On April 13, 1965, a source advised that on March 26, 1965, the OAAU filed a Certificate of Incorporation with the Department of State, State of New York, Albany, New York, and henceforth the organization's true name would be Organization of Afro-American Unity, Incorporated.

~~SECRET~~

The Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), a registered as 50-582 Wilson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, is a mass organization, which has been one of the most prominent that erupted across the South beginning in 1960.

Today SNCC identifies itself as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

According to SNCC, the year 1967 marked a historic milestone in the struggle for the liberation of black people in the United States and the year that revolutionaries throughout the world began to understand more fully the impact of the black movement. SNCC declared that "liberation will come only when there is final destruction of this mad octopus--the capitalistic system of the United States with all its life-sucking tentacles of exploitation and racism that choke the people of Africa, Asia, and Latin America. The realities of black life, together with the recognition instilled in SNCC workers forced its members to further popularize the legitimacy of self-defense and rebellions when oppression became too great."

From May, 1966, until May, 1967, Stokely Carmichael was National Chairman of SNCC. As of July, 1968, Carmichael resided in Washington, D.C., where he was affiliated with SNCC and active as temporary chairman of a black coalition group. In May, 1967, Carmichael was replaced by Hubert Geroid Brown, commonly known as H. Rap Brown, who served until June, 1968.

In June, 1968, at the Staff and Central Committee meeting of SNCC held in Atlanta, Georgia, it was decided to restructure the organization by equalization of responsibility by creating ten deputy or vice chairmanships. The primary purpose for this change is to take law enforcement pressure off any single individual.

APPENDIX

BLACK PANTHER PARTY, aka
Black Panther Party for
Self Defense

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by Bobby George Seale, BPP Chairman, and Huey P. Newton, BPP Minister of Defense. Newton is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther," which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service," states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, George Mason Murray, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "... we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

Re: Miriam Makeba

On October 14, 1969, [redacted] Kennedy
Union, University of Dayton, Dayton, Ohio, advised as follows:

Miriam Makeba, wife of Stokely Carmichael, will appear at the University of Dayton auditorium at 8:00 PM, Sunday, October 26, 1969. She is one of six artists appearing in a series of concerts sponsored by the university. This series is a cultural, ethnic type presentation of music not open to the general public, but to approximately 425 - 450 persons who have purchased a full subscription to the entire series. Makeba is contracted to sing African songs, and there is no indication she will give a speech.

A characterization of Stokely Carmichael and the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), now known as the Student National Coordinating Committee, are attached hereto.

STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE

The Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), headquartered at 360-362 Nelson Street, S.W., Atlanta, Georgia, is a nonmembership organization, which was born out of the sit-in movement that erupted across the South beginning in 1960.

Today SNCC identifies itself as an organization in the revolutionary vanguard. It advocates that to be successful it is necessary to develop a revolutionary ideology and revolutionary program.

According to SNCC, the year 1967 marked a historic milestone in the struggle for the liberation of black people in the United States and the year that revolutionaries throughout the world began to understand more fully the impact of the black movement. SNCC declared that "liberation will come only when there is final destruction of this mad octopus--the capitalistic system of the United States with all its life-sucking tentacles of exploitation and racism that choke the people of Africa, Asia, and Latin America. The realities of black life, together with the recognition instilled in SNCC workers, forced its members to further popularize the legitimacy of self-defense and rebellions when oppression became too great."

From May, 1966, until May, 1967, Stokely Carmichael was National Chairman of SNCC. As of July, 1968, Carmichael resided in Washington, D.C., where he was affiliated with SNCC and active as temporary chairman of a black coalition group. In May, 1967, Carmichael was replaced by Hubert Geroid Brown, commonly known as H. Rap Brown, who served until June, 1968.

In June, 1968, at the Staff and Central Committee meeting of SNCC held in Atlanta, Georgia, it was decided to restructure the organization by equalization of responsibility by creating ten deputy or vice chairmanships. The primary purpose for this change is to take law enforcement pressure off any single individual.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

On September 24, 1963, [redacted] and [redacted] teachers at the Bronx High School of Science, Bronx, New York, advised that there were some individuals at the high school who, in recent years, seemed to be unusually devoted to "left wing" activities. Included in this group was Stokely Carmichael, a graduate of the Class of 1960. These teachers also advised that Carmichael was [redacted]

Carmichael's Immigration and Naturalization Service record in Washington, D.C., reveals that he was born on June 29, 1941, in Trinidad, British West Indies, and entered the United States at New York City on June 15, 1952. His father became a citizen of the United States on April 27, 1953, and Certificate of Citizenship Number A338082 was issued to Stokely Carmichael on April 17, 1958, setting forth that he became a citizen of the United States on April 27, 1953.

A letter issued by the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC), dated June, 1966, identified Carmichael as having been elected to the National Council of that committee.

A characterization of the ECLC is included in the appendix hereto.

A P P E N D I X

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications, revised and published on December 1, 1961, to supercede the guide published on January 2, 1957, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following:

EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE (ECLC)

The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.

Frank Wilkinson was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956, Wilkinson was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the Party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. Wilkinson has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.

Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists.

MIRIAM MAKEBA
Lives in an African village.

Miriam Makeba gets songs from her travels

MIRIAM MAKEBA is genuinely black and beautiful. She is also extremely bitter about the injustices committed against her race in her homeland, South Africa. She cannot go back there, though after nine years in America she has returned to set up home in Africa.

"I live in a small village in Guinea in a typical African-style roundhouse with a thatched roof. Although the people know I'm a singer who travels all over the world they just accept me as one of them. But when I do go out the children follow me shouting my name.

"Guinea may seem remote but I find it easy to travel; I believe in travelling and collect a lot of my song material this way I've been in London for a week, then I'm off to Italy in February followed by a trip to Scandinavia."

All this comes out in an unusually hoarse voice. "All the time I've been here has been spent in the recording studio completing an album. I've made 10 of the 15 tracks in the last week and my voice has almost gone."

As the wife of the militant American black leader Stokely Carmichael much of her time is occupied with furthering the hopes of her own people.

"In Africa we have so much native talent but it is so exploited. I was one of the lucky ones who was given full recognition (she was one of the London stars of the African musical King Kong), but there are others I have known, song writers, artists, whose work has been taken and adapted by the Western world, giving them nothing in return," she says.

"At least people in England care more than any others about what is happening in Africa. They bother to protest about apartheid."

Although she likes European clothes - grey trouser suit, brightly coloured blouse - she declares her identification with Africa boldly by a heavy embroidered native hat. She is passionate about African rights without losing her sense of humour.

"Actually," she says, gesturing towards the hat, "this is usually worn by the men. And I've got it on back to front."

RELATIVES WHO HAVE BUREAU MAIN FILES

The relationship, biographical data, and associations of Miriam Makeba with individuals advocating "Black Power" in the US, are set forth in the following serials of the main file on her spouse, Stokely Carmichael. Much of this information resulted from coverage of Stokely Carmichael's activities as a black extremist, both prior and subsequent to their marriage in WDC, on 4/29/68. During that period Makeba, who was a singer, traveled extensively in the US and abroad and usually was accompanied by Carmichael who would make speeches and/or participate in extremist activities in the same area. Background information indicates that Makeba first was admitted to the US, from Johannesburg, South Africa, as a visitor on 11/11/59 and 8/23/60, and that she was granted permanent residence in the US on 5/1/61. Previous to her marriage to Carmichael [REDACTED] b6 b7

[REDACTED] In March, 1968, in WDC, Makeba and Carmichael were involved in an incident with the Dixie Realty Company over a deposit she made to lease a residence at 2815 13th Street, NW, WDC, and part of the money was refunded to her to prevent trouble. Subsequently they negotiated for purchase of a house at 4331 Blagden Avenue, NW, but were unable to raise satisfactory financing. In November, 1968, belongings were removed from the Carmichaels' residence at 5015-16th Street, NW, WDC, preparatory to shipment by boat to Conakry, Guinea in early December, 1968. Subsequently it was reported that they had left the US and established residence in Africa. Information was received, which was not to be disseminated outside the Bureau, indicating that [REDACTED] b6 b7

[REDACTED] According to Finnish news articles, the Carmichaels, on 2/6/69, left Finland for Sweden from whence they would travel to Guinea to take up permanent residence. They had arrived in Helsinki from Stockholm on 2/4/69 and on 2/5/69 Miriam taped a television program on "What it is like to be an African artist". Makeba reportedly supported "nationalists" groups in Africa and, along with Carmichael, had contact with African government officials:

The following references set out information on the activities of Miriam Makeba in connection with her attendance at the Congress of Black Writers, at McGill University, Montreal, Canada, on 10/11-14/68, together with her husband, Stokely Carmichael, who was a participant. Carmichael, [redacted] were admitted to Canada at the Montreal, Quebec International Airport on 10/13/68, for the purpose of attending the Congress. Makeba accompanied Carmichael to the auditorium on 10/14/68 when he made a speech. The "Montreal Star", 10/15/68, in an article entitled "Carmichael Fires Up Black Writers" reporting on this speech, stated that Makeba drew even greater applause than her husband when she was introduced as the first lady of North American blacks. The article also stated that Makeba was not there in her own right, but merely as a wife, and that she neither spoke nor sang but just smiled. Their permits to enter Canada expired on 10/16/68 and on 10/17/68, Carmichael presented himself to Canadian Immigration, Halifax, Nova Scotia for an extension, which was denied. He then departed Halifax via air, arriving in Boston, Massachusetts, on 10/17/68, with Makeba [redacted] and three Negro males. At 5:30 P.M. Makeba [redacted] and Carmichael departed Boston by air enroute to Baltimore, Maryland:

MIRIAM MAKEBA INTERVIEWED BY SWEDISH REPORTER

[Article by Elisabeth Frankl; Stockholm, Expressen, Swedish, 15
February 1970]

Question: "You are on tour almost constantly, Miriam Makeba.
What drives you? How do you do it? You have been unwell and tired the whole time you were here in Sweden."

Answer: "The money drives me, but that's only part of the reason. I want to sing.

"The few happy moments in my life are when I'm singing. . .

"Perhaps that's because I have to concentrate so much on the music that I don't have time to think about my problems.

"I travel because I think people would get tired of me otherwise.
That's why I have to go on these long tours. But I think I came back to Sweden too soon this time!

"It's better if I wait until the public misses me. That would be true of the Swedes this time.

105-176973-15

"Maybe there is something restless in me that makes me want to travel. After a few days in one place, I feel compelled to move on.

"Now the tour is over. I'm very tired. Actually, I should be going on to Mexico and Italy, but I won't. I can't. I want to get home to my husband now. I'll be so happy to get back to him.

"After I leave here, I won't go anywhere for 5 or 6 months. I will just stay home."

Question: "Why didn't your husband, Stokely ~~Carmichael~~, come with you on this tour?"

SWEDEN U.S

Answer: "I didn't want him to. He wouldn't have anything to do if he came with me; he just does it so we can be together. This time he had something else to do at home.

"My daughter, Bongi, and my grandchild came along. But Bongi received a telephone call from New York, where she lives, because her husband was sick. So she and her child returned quickly to be with him.

"From time to time, I borrow my grandson for a couple of months and keep him with me. Then I give him back. Bongi is not very enthusiastic about it, though."

Question: "What is your home life with Stokely like in African Guinea?"

Answer: "We live in a white, African-style house, quite round with an opening in the middle. Livingroom and three bedrooms, so we can have one or two overnight guests at times.

"We have no household help. I do all the work myself.

"There we live. Stokely keeps himself busy. I usually go to a maternity hospital some distance away. I clean for them.

"When I am traveling, I try to collect surgical gloves for the doctors as well as bandages and other things they need.

"Later I practice a lot at home. Now I am training a group of black musicians who will eventually be able to come along with me on my tours as my group. We haven't come that far. Until they are ready, I have to have my own musical group in America. It is not practical.

"Now I will continue to practice with my group home in Guinea. African songs they do very well. But the rest of my repertoire, the part that isn't African, seems very difficult and foreign to them."

Question: "You mentioned Stokely's work. How much do you have to do with that?"

Answer: "He has his plans and his own work. I don't take an active part, I am not a leader.

"But I try to support him. I let him do what he is best suited for and does best. And I do what I do best.

"People talk about Stokely as if he were a monster!

"But he is gentle and sensitive and thoughtful. He is the most honest man I have met in my entire life.

"Everything he says is true. He says nothing that does not agree with reality.

"Why do people make him out an ogre?"

"When he makes a 2-hour speech, gradually explaining and developing his ideas, step by step, everybody is just waiting for him to come to the end and say, 'That's why we blacks have to arm ourselves.'

"That's all that people remember afterwards.

"And then radio and TV ask for a 5-minute interview with Stokely. 'Tell about yourself, fast, you only get 5 minutes! It isn't possible to say who you are in 5 minutes.'

Question: "Stokely has been misunderstood then?"

Answer: "No, he has not been misunderstood. He has been greatly distorted! People are afraid of him. They expect him to look like a mad man who wants to kill all whites.

"People always say, how can you be married to somebody who has ideas like Stokely Carmichael's, but I have the same ideas myself! How can they imagine that I would marry a man with whom I disagreed on such important matters? I can't understand it.

"I left South Africa in 1960. And I married Stokely in 1968. By then I had developed on my own for 8 years. It was precisely because we had similar ideas that we came together!

"I have not changed because of my marriage, but I have learned more because of living with him."

Question: "What is your relationship to Black Power and the Black Panthers?"

Answer: "I don't belong to any such organization. My husband has. I don't know more about the Panthers than what I read in the paper.

"But I am no longer afraid of the word 'violence.' I don't know why we blacks are not allowed to use that word. Show me a country that has not used violence to get where it is today. I would be very happy if you could. In that respect, Sweden is no better than any other country.

"But blacks are supposed to be like Jesus Christ. We always have to be 'nice.' And we have been. But in many of us, good nature has gone so far that it has become stupidity."

Question: "Would you like to see the blacks in your native South Africa come to power by means of violence?"

Answer: "I wouldn't just like to see it happen, I want it to happen!

"Because South Africa is mine. It belongs to the blacks. All Africa belongs to us blacks."

Question: "At this moment, do you feel any hatred because I, the person who is talking to you, am white?"

Answer: "As an individual -- no.

"But I see you at the same time as part of a collective. And then -- yes, I hate you! I hate all whites. I can't help it.

"White people have their lives, we have ours. We don't really want to associate with each other.

"Individual whites may be good people. But as a whole, they are bad.

"These individuals come up to me and say, 'Look, I like you. Don't let the rest upset you.

"These people are middle-aged. If they cared about us, they would influence other whites to change and as long as they are unsuccessful in doing this, they are not on our side.

"As long as they hesitate to do something for the blacks in South Africa and Rhodesia, they are not our friends."

Question: "What was your first contact with white people?"

Answer: "I was 27 years old the first time I sat in the same room with white people and drank tea at the same table with them!

"That was after I left South Africa.

"Before that, I had lived with my family in a black reservation outside Johannesburg.

"My father was a teacher and my mother cleaned house for white people. Both of them sang a lot; that is where I learned how to sing.

"When I was a year old, we had to move. All the blacks moved to a place further away, because some white people decided our neighborhood was nice and they wanted to live there instead.

"It was then declared a white area.

"I went to school a few years. Just enough to learn enough English so that I can communicate with you now, for example.

"You don't speak my language.

"Since then I have learned a lot I would never have learned if I had stayed in school.

"I keep my eyes and ears open. I listen and I look and I understand.

"Still, I think I am basically the same person I was when I lived on the reservation.

"My contacts with whites were those of a servant with her masters. I went to them and collected their dirty clothes. Then I took them with me, washed and ironed them and delivered the clean clothes.

"I washed their kitchen floors.

"And I looked after their children. The children were taught to call me 'kaffir.' But they gave me worse names too."

Question: "Do you still have any family in South Africa?"

Answer: "I have a brother and a sister. The others are dead. Sometimes I get letters, but they can't write very much.

"When I left South Africa, my father was dead. But my mother was still alive."

Question: "You never saw your mother again?"

Answer: "No. She died a few years later. I was not permitted to return home for her funeral."

Question: "Have you tried to get your brother and sister out of the country?"

Answer: "They don't want to leave. I wanted to stay too, you know. I didn't know when I left that I would never get a permit to enter the country again. I thought I would soon be coming home."

Question: "Do you run into discrimination even though you are now famous?"

Answer: "Yes. Also in Sweden. But it happens more often to my group. I am well aware that people treat me differently just because I am known. And that is not a good feeling.

"The last time I was in Paris, I was not allowed in a restaurant, even though I am Miriam Makeba!

"I had given a concert and a table had been reserved for me at a good restaurant in the vicinity for after the show. I always eat afterward. I can't eat before I sing.

"When I came to the restaurant with two blacks from my group, a man stood at the door and said, 'Sorry, you can't come in here.'"

Question: "Did the doorman know who you were?"

Answer: "Yes. The arrangers of the concert had reserved the table in my name.

"I went back to my hotel and went to bed. I didn't have anything more to eat that day...

"And here in Sweden, you only care about your own artists; they become stars overnight. They become popular. Many Swedish artists are mediocre, but you make a big thing out of them.

"There are black singers in Sweden with good voices, but they don't have much of a chance.

"There are many blacks in the world who can really sing soul songs. Lately it has been fashionable for whites to try. And they -- who are much worse -- are the ones who get the high wages.

"If there is a white blues singer, she will be popular even if thousands of black women could easily sing rings around her..."

Question: "People have given you a hard time especially since you married Stokely Carmichael."

Answer: "Yes. They wanted to stop my career. But I'm still the same Miriam Makeba! I sing just as well today as I did before I married Stokely. The administration doesn't like Stokely. That's why they want to stop me.

"I don't care. It's your world!

"People said too: should we pay her? She'll just give the money to the black liberation movement. Should we pay out money that they will use to destroy us?

"White artists can do whatever they want. We blacks have to do what the administration wants us to.

"Look what they did to Paul Robeson. They put a stop to his career because his political beliefs were not acceptable..

"They have also ended Cassius Clay's boxing career, simply because his religious beliefs and political convictions upset them."

Question: "And this sort of thing couldn't happen to a white artist?"

Answer: "No. Such things happen only to blacks. White artists can do the craziest things -- it just increases their popularity!

"They can even oppose the government. Hasn't Joan Baez become more popular as a singer since she refused to pay her taxes?

"I pay my taxes.

"That's how it is with me -- the more successful I am as a singer, the more unlucky I am!

Question: "But you are fortunate. You are the great Miriam Makeba."

Answer: "Yes, I have been fortunate. But God knows it has been hard.

"And it seems to me I should have made more progress!

"When I first sang in America, there were white people who appeared on the show before me. --After I came, I was the star of the show.

"Many of the whites who appeared in my show now have their own TV shows in America. Things have gone so well for them because they are white.

"Today I should be quite different from what I am!

"Because I'm a good singer. I know I'm good. Even if I do say so myself."

On May 19, 1970, [redacted] Records Administration and Information Section of the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), 20 West Broadway, New York City, advised a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), that Miriam Makeba has not applied for United States citizenship. [redacted] advised she was eligible to apply for United States citizenship on May 1, 1966. Miss Makeba's status with the INS had been changed May 1, 1961, to permanent resident alien.

[redacted] advised that records of the INS fail to disclose the type of passport utilized by Miss Makeba on entering the United States, March 18, 1970. He advised that the form recording such information is no longer maintained by INS and is destroyed by the Central Office of INS in Washington, D.C. shortly after arrival.

[redacted] noted, however, that Miss Makeba who was born in South Africa claimed Tanganyikian Nationality as of August, 1966. Subsequently in July, 1968, she claimed she was a citizen or national of Tanzania.

Characterizations of SNCC, BPP, RNA and BUF appear in the appendix.

The CBE is publicly described as an independent, total program of education designed to train technicians who will work to liberate African people and develop the African world. It was formally opened on October 1, 1969 at 1435-37 Fairmont Street, N.W., WDC. It was founded by James Garrett, publicly identified as a former member of the BPP and considered to be one of the leading Negro militants in the San Francisco area prior to his coming to WDC.

The Malcolm X Liberation University, located in Durham, North Carolina, has been publicly described as a University devoted to the re-orienting of student priorities to the concept of "Pan-Africanism" through courses dealing with African civilization, slavery, colonialism, and related subjects.

STUDENT NATIONAL COORDINATING COMMITTEE

A source advised the Student National Coordinating Committee (SNCC), formerly known as the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, is a nonmembership organization founded in 1960, during the civil rights movement in the South.

Under the leadership of Stokely Carmichael, who served as National Chairman during the period 1966-67, SNCC evolved from a civil rights oriented group into a full-blown black revolutionary organization.

A publication entitled "1967 High Tide of Black Resistance" indicates the year 1967 was considered by SNCC as a historic milestone for the liberation of black people in the United States and the year that revolutionaries throughout the world began to understand more fully the impact of the black movement. The publication declared that "liberation will come only when there is final destruction of this mad octopus--the capitalistic system of the United States with all its life-sucking tentacles of exploitation and racism that choke the people of Africa, Asia, and Latin America. The realities of black life, together with the recognition instilled in SNCC workers, forced its members to further popularize the legitimacy of self-defense and rebellions when oppression became too great."

A second source advised that H. Rap Brown succeeded Carmichael as National Chairman of SNCC in May, 1968, and served in that capacity until June, 1968, at which time SNCC reorganized, creating ten deputy chairmen in an effort to relieve pressure by law enforcement.

In April, 1969, SNCC moved its national headquarters from Atlanta, Georgia, to New York City, where it is presently located.

H. Rap Brown announced at a press conference in New York City on July 22, 1969, that he had been elected Chairman of the Student Non violent Coordinating Committee. He announced the organization was dropping the word "Nonviolent" from its title and will be known as the Student National Coordinating Committee, with a Revolutionary Political Council functioning as its governing body. Brown, at that time, stated the use of force is necessary in obtaining revolutionary goals.

APPENDIXBLACK PANTHER PARTY, aka
Black Panther Party for
Self Defense

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by Bobby George Seale, BPP Chairman, and Huey P. Newton, BPP Minister of Defense. Newton is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther", which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service", states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, George Mason Murray, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "...we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

APPENDIX~~SECRET~~REPUBLIC OF NEW AFRICA

A source has advised that the Republic of New Africa (RNA) is an all-Negro organization founded in Detroit, Michigan, in March, 1968. Robert F. Williams, who was then residing in Peking, China, was named as its President-in-Exile. Williams fled the United States in 1961 following issuance of a local warrant for his arrest on a charge of kidnapping growing out of a racial incident in Monroe, North Carolina. He published and broadcast hate-type material in Cuba and China prior to his return to the United States in September, 1969.

A second source has advised that the purpose of the RNA is to establish an independent black nation within the United States, demanding the States of Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, and South Carolina in addition to $10,000 per black citizen as payment for 400 years of ancestral slave labor.

A third source advised on March 14, 1969, that an army of the RNA, known as the Black Legion, dedicated to black freedom and committed to the concept of systematic armed revolution, has been established. Black Legion members are expected to participate in military training and engage in firearms practice. The RNA plans to establish an underground Black Legion in addition to an aboveground Black Legion in order to avoid detection by the police.

According to this source, Black Legion members acting as bodyguards at a session of the Second National Convention of the RNA in Detroit, Michigan, on March 29, 1969, were involved in a shoot-out with members of the Detroit Police Department which resulted in the killing of one policeman and the critical wounding of another.

APPENDIXBLACK UNITED FRONT (BUF)

A source advised that on January 9, 1968, a meeting was held at Washington, D. C., by Stokely Carmichael. At this meeting, the Black United Front, an organization consisting of representatives of Black organizations and individuals was formed in the District of Columbia in order to effect operational unity among and for Black people.

During June, 1968, a second source advised that the Black United Front in an official statement of purpose stated it was established for the purpose of expanding the lines of communication between, and effecting togetherness among all the Black people in the District of Columbia in order that they might obtain a rightful and proportionate share in the decision making councils of the District, and rightful and proportionate control of the economic institutions in the Black community.

The standards for qualification as a member were listed as:

1. Any Black individual who has concern and interest in the Black community.
2. Any organization whose primary involvement is for the benefit of Black people, provided it has at least a 50% Black constituency and its representative in the BUF is black.

"The Washington Post and Times Herald", a daily newspaper printed at Washington, D. C., in an article on page A-1, dated July 6, 1968, captioned "Slaying of 'olice Defended", stated:

BLACK UNITED FRONT (BUF)

"The Black United Front issued a statement yesterday describing the slaying of a District Policeman Tuesday night as a" justifiable homicide.

"The statement said in part:

'The methods of self defense used by the family charged with the alleged slaying of the honky cop is justifiable homicide in the same sense that police are allowed to kill black people and call it justifiable homicide.'

"Several hours later, Mayor Walter E. Washington asserted that the BUF resolution with respect to the slaying of Officer (Stephen A.) Williams..... is inflammatory, irresponsible and unfortunate."

"The Washington Daily News", another daily newspaper printed in Washington, D. C., in an article on page 5, dated July 17, 1968, captioned "BUF Takes New Tact" stated in part that the BUF plans to find ways and means to take control of the police force in the District of Columbia.

Johnathan Power, according to the New York Times, a daily newspaper, published at New York, New York, February 6, 1971, edition page 11, is an English economist and free lance journalist who was in Guinea from January 5, 1971, to February 2, 1971. He was described as the first Western writer admitted to Guinea in months. The above edition of the New York Times also contained an article by Power datelined Conakry, Guinea, February 2, 1970, which recites an interview with Carmichael in Guinea. The article refers generally to Carmichael's well known and often publicized philosophy of Pan-Africanism and his concern with "Mother Africa".

On such date a Special Agent of the FBI was in attendance at a speech by Carmichael in the main cafeteria of the Student Union Building on the SUNY Stoneybrook, New York campus. Carmichael urged white students to become true revolutionaries and stated blacks must arm themselves to achieve the overthrow of the capitalist imperialist United States Government and establish a Marxist - Scientific Socialist Society. Carmichael noted that blacks will have to kill many people to achieve the realization of this new government.

Carmichael derided the so called Weathermen revolutionaries stating that they are without purpose, have no idealistic philosophy, and cannot succeed.

During a question and answer session following his extemporaneous speech, the white students in the audience generally differed with Carmichael and expressed dissatisfaction with his philosophy. The black students in the audience were generally in agreement with Carmichael. Approximately 1,000 students were present 30 of whom were black. On April 28, 1971, a confidential source, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that [redacted]

[redacted]

This same source further disclosed on April 28, 1971, that a Pan-African Conference was held at Malcolm X University, Greensboro, North Carolina, March 20 and 21, 1971.

Approximately 24 persons were in attendance for this conference and represented the core of a group which would seek to foster Pan-Africanism on a national basis. Stokely Carmichael, who chaired the meeting, delivered brief outlines on the various types of government in Africa. Carmichael also indicated that the United States Government persuaded the Government of Ethiopia to open diplomatic relations with Communist China so as to carry on Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) activities from the Ethiopian Embassy in Peking.

Stokely Carmichael

During the conference, various discussions were held on the differences between Marxism and Pan-Africanism. The Pan-Africanist philosophy aims at the large black populations in the Western Hemisphere in order to organize them to support the Pan-Africanist Movement.

An extended discussion was engaged in concerning the formation of a black political party in the United States (US). It was decided that certain areas within the US were capable of supporting a black political party and that conditions in Washington, D. C., are such that a black political party will soon be initiated there and Pan-Africanists will control it.

During this conference, it was also decided that there was a need to organize black students on campuses so that they can be recruited and trained in the ideology of Pan-Africanism. These university trained Pan-Africanists would then be used to organize people in the community. The Student Organization For Black Unity (SOBU) will attempt to open chapters all over the US and will serve as a front group for the Pan-African Movement.

Among those in attendance at the Pan-African Conference in Greensboro, North Carolina, in addition to Stokely Carmichael, were Meriam Makeba, Carmichael's wife, [redacted] and various other individuals.

During the speaking engagement of Stokely Carmichael on the west coast, in April, 1971, it was reported that [redacted] Bravo Black Performing Arts Agency, in New York City, was acting on behalf of Carmichael.

On April 12, 1971, a second confidential source of the New York Office, who has provided reliable information in the past, advised that Bravo Black Performing Arts Agency is unknown within the New York City business community as revealed through usual checks with business references normally familiar with the operation of businesses in the New York City area.

On April 8, 1971, the records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York were caused to be reviewed by a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). Such review failed to disclose any references identifiable with either [redacted] [redacted] Bravo Black Performing Arts Agency.

During April and May, 1971, various confidential sources of the New York Office, familiar to some extent with Black Nationalists or Black Militant activities, were contacted but were unable to provide any additional information concerning [redacted] the Black Arts Performing Agency Incorporated.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
MIRIAM MAKEBA

On November 2, 1971, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on October 31, 1971, Miriam Makeba presented a concert at the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Hall, Pittsburgh. The source advised that also on the program at the concert was Hugh Masakela, an African jazz musician, and a group called the Bob Johnson Dancers from Pittsburgh.

According to the source, the Master of Ceremonies at the concert was Al Brisbane, a disc jockey for Pittsburgh Radio Station WAMO, which station is generally directed toward the Black community. The source advised that the Master of Ceremonies announced that the concert was sponsored by the Congress of African Peoples (CAP) and that if the concert was a success, further such programs may be sponsored by the CAP in Pittsburgh.

The Congress of African People (CAP), headquartered in Boston, Massachusetts, was founded as a Black separatist organization in Atlanta, Georgia, in September 1970, at the fourth annual gathering of advocates of Black Power in the United States. CAP's basic goal is the global expression of black nationalism through the promotion of Pan-Africanism. CAP seeks the creation of a political force capable of seizing power from the existing political force through massive programs of disruption, violence, if necessary, and the establishment of independent black institutions.

Miriam Makeba has been publicly identified as a well-known African singer who is married to Stokely Carmichael.

Stokely Carmichael has been publicly identified as a militant and civil rights activist who currently resides in Conakry, Guinea.

According to the source, [REDACTED]

The CAP, headquartered in Boston, Massachusetts, was founded as a black separatist organization in Atlanta, Georgia, in September, 1970, at the fourth annual gathering of advocates of black power in the United States. CAP's basic goal is the global expression of black nationalism through the promotion of Pan Africanism. CAP seeks the creation of a political force capable of seizing power from the existing political force through massive programs of disruption, violence, if necessary, and the establishment of independent black institutions.

MIRIAM MAKEBA;

CONGRESS OF AFRICAN PEOPLE

On November 11, 1971, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Makeba-Masekela concert started at 8:40 p.m., forty minutes after its scheduled starting time. The hall was approximately one-third filled when Station WILD disc jockey, Mike Youngblood, introduced the first performer, Hugh Masekela, and his group, the Union of South Africa, MASS. Masekela and his group performed until approximately 9:45 p.m., and their presentation was followed by an intermission at which Boston-based CAP National Chairman Haywood Henry spoke. Henry discussed the difficulties which face a promoter attempting to sponsor an all-black concert in the city of Boston. He stated that despite the difficulties this was something that "had to be done" in order that black people have a greater understanding of their heritage. Henry implied that strong bonds of unity would be formed in the black community through presentations such as the concert.

No collection was taken up during the concert and Henry's speech was described by the source as not being revolutionary or militant.

Miriam Makeba concluded the program with her presentation of predominantly African songs with some songs in English. During her portion of the program, a young black girl danced while Makeba sang. Makeba, in introducing several of her songs, alluded to her difficulties with the South African government and her denial of a passport by that government. She thanked other black African governments which had granted her citizenship and issued her passports in order that she might continue her travel and musical activities.

Miriam Makeba is publicly known as a widely acclaimed African singer who is the wife of Stokely Carmichael. Stokely Carmichael has been publicly identified as a militant and civil rights activist who currently resides in Conakry, Guinea.

MASS. { The second confidential source also advised that among the Boston-area black militants observed in the audience were Delano Farrar, Chico Neblett, and his wife, Rene Neblett.

Mrs. Chico Neblett

The BPP is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December, 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government.

On March 25, 1972, a representative of Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), John F. Kennedy International Airport (JFK), New York, New York, advised Miriam Zenzile Makeba arrived JFK Airport on SAS Flight 911, which arrived in New York at 6:07 PM on March 25, 1972. Makeba was admitted on a B-2 visa (pleasure) which expires July 9, 1972. This visa was issued at Conakry on March 13, 1972. Makeba was born March 4, 1932, at Johannesburg, South Africa, she had Diplomatic Passport Number P025-69, listing her out of country address as Villa Makeba, Conakry, Republic Guinea and her destination in the United States as 23 East 94th Street, New York, New York. Makeba listed her citizenship as "Guinian and others".

Investigation at 23 East 94th Street, New York, New York, on March 28, 1972, revealed this address is the location of a large apartment building.

An article appeared in the New York "Post", a daily newspaper published in New York City, on March 27, 1972, page 28, column 1, entitled "Black Heroes Honored". This article related that 4000 people attended the Reverend Jesse Jackson's "Soul Picnic" at the 369th Regiment Armory in New York City.

Malcolm X Liberation University is described as an institution formed in 1969 at Durham, North Carolina, now located at Greensboro, North Carolina, to train young black people in the skills necessary to take over the institutions of the United States. The school is to produce black militants with the capability of extremist acts with their loyalty primarily to black people regardless of the nation in which they live.

The Congress of African Peoples (CAP), headquartered in Boston, Massachusetts, was founded as a black separatist organization in Atlanta, Georgia, in September, 1970, at the fourth annual gathering of advocates of black power in the United States. CAP's basic goal is the global expression of black nationalism through the promotion of Pan-Africanism. CAP seeks the creation of a political force capable of seizing power from the existing political force through massive programs of disruption, violence, if necessary, and the establishment of independent black institutions.

Stokely Carmichael's prominence as a black extremist, his consistent advocacy of violent revolution in this country and his efforts to persuade black Americans to dedicate themselves to Pan-Africanism and to aiding African revolutionaries make it essential that coverage of him be as thorough and penetrating as possible

Accordingly, the following instructions for investigation of Carmichael are being set forth some of which are reiterations of instructions issued in Bureau teletypes dated 3/18/70 and 2/24/71 in conjunction with his prior visits to this country.

New York insure an F3 stop continues in effect with the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) for immediate notification of Carmichael's return to this country as well as a search of his baggage. New York also verify the arrival of Carmichael through Agent observation and sutel details as well as pertinent descriptive data. Thereafter, a daily teletype summary is to be submitted by the office covering the territory in which Carmichael is situated setting forth his activities and identifying his contacts.

Logical sources and informants are to be targeted to develop information concerning the activities of Carmichael on a day-to-day basis as well as his future plans. Endeavor to place informants in daily contact with Carmichael. Contacts of Carmichael are to be identified and those known or suspected extremists are to receive close and continuing investigative coverage. All travel by Carmichael is to be coordinated between field offices and offices responsible for coverage of him must be made aware of instructions contained herein.

Afford coverage of any public appearances by Carmichael and handle in accordance with instructions contained in Bureau letter to all offices dated 5/22/69 and Bureau airtel to all offices dated 11/5/70 both of which are entitled "Use of Concealed Recording Devices in Covering Public Appearances by Black and New Left Extremists." These instructions emphasize the value of taping remarks of extremists during public speaking engagements and point out that recordings are to be handled as evidence and a copy furnished to the Bureau. Special Agents in Charge can authorize use of concealed recording devices by a Special Agent or a proven source in covering public appearances except when such appearances are at educational institutions. Attempts should also be made to ascertain financial remuneration received by Carmichael for his appearances.

Remain alert for possible violations of Federal laws by Carmichael. In this regard, statutes which would appear to be particularly applicable are Antiriot Laws, Registration Act and Firearms Acts as well as those relating to rebellion or insurrection (Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 2383) and private correspondence with foreign governments (Title 18, U. S. Code, Section 953). Data regarding possible violations of these statutes or of any other Federal statute should be brought to the Bureau's attention promptly.

Any physical surveillance of Carmichael considered to be essential should be handled with discretion in view of the probable news media interest regarding his presence in the United States. Pertinent local authorities should be appropriately notified of Carmichael's presence and where necessary of scheduled public appearances.

We have not previously conducted an active investigation of Miriam Makeba. In view of the information received during 8/72, furnished to recipients in Bureau letter dated 8/28/72

New York place an F3 stop with INS. Also verify her arrival at New York through Agent observation and include pertinent data in the teletype to be submitted by your office.

New York and WFO are to target sources and informants to develop information concerning her activities and contacts while in this country. Coordinate travel by Makeba with other field offices and insure that these offices are instructed to similarly target appropriate sources and informants. ## Home Was Out of Reach

A 19-year-old convicted murderer who escaped from a hospital last month and wanted to "go home to die," succumbed to acute leukemia yesterday at Boston City Hospital.

Peter Yuhas of Portsmouth, N.H., was returned to the hospital when he was found at the home of a Portsmouth relative several hours after the escape Aug. 3.

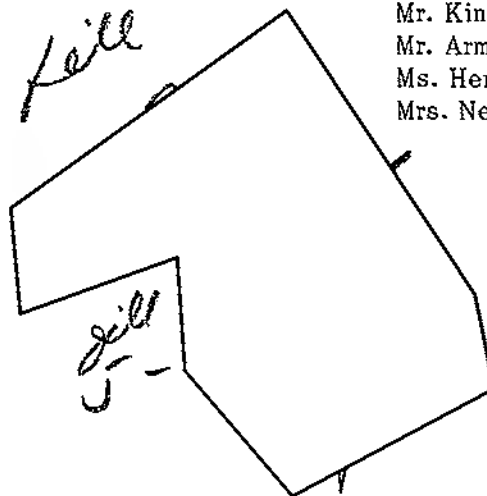

Yuhas pleaded guilty in June to second-degree murder in the October 1971 slaying of John Labanara, 26, an aide to Boston Mayor Kevin H. White.

The day after the guilty plea, doctors discovered he had leukemia.

He was placed under guard at Boston City Hospital, but was never sentenced because that would have meant confinement at the Walpole state prison.

He escaped by climbing out of a bathroom window, along a ledge to another window and a down a stairway. After his return to the hospital, his condition continued to deteriorate.

He wrote to Suffolk County Sheriff Thomas Eisenstadt apologizing for the escape and later told Eisenstadt, "I wanted to go home to die."—AP

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
MIRIAM MAKEBA

It will be recalled that Stokely Carmichael, described in the news media as an American Black militant, and his wife, Miriam Makeba, well-known singer and entertainer who was born in South Africa, departed from the United States in December, 1968 to take up residence in Conakry, Republic of Guinea, West Africa.

Carmichael's most recent return to the United States occurred in February and March, 1971 at which time he returned to Conakry. He is last known to have been issued Passport Number Z-983035 at the American Embassy in Conakry on April 22, 1971, limited to expire on July 21, 1971.

Information recently developed indicates that Carmichael and his wife plan to return to the United States on October 7, 1972.

A brief note appearing on Page 3 of September 2, 1972 edition of "Washington Afro-American", a semi-weekly newspaper of general circulation in the Washington, D.C. (WDC) area, stated:

"Stokely Carmichael is scheduled to return to the United States in Early October. He is due to receive an honorary degree from Howard University."

On September 7, 1972, WFT-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Howard University Student Association (HUSA) had made it known to the Howard University Administration that plans were being formulated to have Stokely Carmichael appear on campus as a speaker sometime during October, 1972. HUSA also submitted a request to the authorities to bestow an honorary degree on Carmichael at time of his appearance.

ENCLOSURE

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

STOKELY CARMICHAEL
MIRIAM MAKEBA

WFT-1 learned that the Howard University Administration had notified the HUSA that such a request regarding an honorary degree would have to be passed on by the University's board of review; that since the board of review will not be in session prior to October, 1972, it appeared unlikely such a request could be granted, but that it would, nevertheless, be given further consideration.

Concerning financial details of HUSA's plans for Carmichael's appearance, WFT-1 learned that while HUSA does have authority to pay for a speaker's travel expenses, no precedent has been set by HUSA for paying for anyone's transportation from outside the United States.

An article appearing on page A-3 of the September 5, 1972 issue of "The Star and News", WLC newspaper, indicates that Carmichael's wife, Miriam Makeba, had announced at the final performance of her tour of Cuba that she had been granted Cuban citizenship.

Copy of the news article is attached herewith.

The Bureau does not concur with the decision of the New York Office to close this matter inasmuch as Makeba has reportedly returned to Africa. In accordance with instructions set forth in Bureau letter dated 9/1/72, efforts should be continued to develop information concerning Makeba's activities and contacts while in this country.

WFO teletype dated 10/18/72 entitled "Stokely Carmichael" reported that Makeba had arrived in Washington, D. C., on 10/17/72 and was then staying with her husband in Washington, D. C. WFO teletype dated 11/30/72 entitled "Stokely Carmichael" contained information that Makeba had returned to Africa. Additional pertinent information concerning the subject is contained in Legat, Rome, letter dated 10/16/72 entitled "Stokely Carmichael" to the effect that Makeba was in Rome during September and October, 1972, to take part in the national festival organized annually by the Italian Communist Party.

WFO furnish Bureau and New York with pertinent information developed concerning Makeba while she was in the Washington, D. C., area. New York thereafter submit an IHM in captioned matter containing significant data pertaining to Makeba subsequent to that contained in WFO IHM dated 9/8/72 which reported her planned return to the United States and her recent visit to Cuba during which she was reportedly granted Cuban citizenship. In the cover communication New York should advise the Bureau of steps being taken to develop additional information concerning Makeba while in this country.

In Kingston, Jamaica, Miriam Makeba, the singer, complained that her entry to the United States was being delayed by the State Department. Miss Makeba, a citizen of Guinea and the wife of Stokely Carmichael, the black activist, said, "They keep telling me I don't have the right papers." The United States Ambassador to Jamaica, Vincent deRoulet, said that because Miss Makeba intended to work in the United States, she could not be given a simple tourist visa.

"Miss Makeba," said the Ambassador, "is apparently used to a lot of publicity and unlike a hell of a lot of other people, she is not used to waiting. I don't care how much hell she's raised, she's going to wait like everyone else."

Re WFOlet, 1/10/73; and NY airtel, 4/19/73 to WFO (IO).

Information made available to the Bureau by other offices indicates the subject arrived in the United States on 1/30/73, from Liberia. Thereafter, she joined her husband, STOKELY CARMICHAEL in Los Angeles, on 1/31/73 or 2/1/73. She was with him in East Palo Alto, California on 2/3-4/73, and left for New York on the latter date.

According to the "New York Times" for 2/16/73, MAKEBA gave a concert at Philharmonic Hall on Wednesday evening (2/14/73). She was _____

_____ but according to _____ She left _____

REC-26 105-176973-42

The next time MAKEBA was heard from was through the WDC media that she was in Kingston, Jamaica, as set out in WFO airtel, 3/2/73. She returned to New York from Jamaica with CARMICHAEL on 3/6/73, and it was indicated that her H-1 visa was valid to 4/2/73, according to Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) records at New York.

[redacted] indicated MAKEBA [redacted]
[redacted] (WFO tel 3/10/73), and this was the last information this source had concerning MAKEBA in the United States. [redacted] has also advised that she and her husband [redacted] (WFO tel
4/17/73, in the CARMICHAEL CAPTION).

Cincinnati teletype 4/20/73, in the CARMICHAEL caption, notes that STOKELY CARMICHAEL, then at the Port Columbus, Ohio airport, was met there by his wife, who arrived in Columbus, Ohio, at 10:00 a.m. on 4/20/73 from La Guardia,
New York. Cincinnati teletype 4/23/73 notes MAKEBA departed
Columbus, Ohio on 4/22/73 at 4:55 p.m., via TWA Flight 538 for New York City.

New York airtel 4/19/73 requested to check subject's INS record at WDC. Such check here reveals that subject's INS file A 12-072-942 has been charged to INS at New York City since 5/15/61. However, an I-94 form (Arrival and Departure) at INS in WDC contained similar information as provided by
New York Office regarding her arrival from Jamaica on 3/6/73.
New York referenced airtel advises a check of INS records there failed to confirm her previous departure from the United States as indicated on or about 3/11/73.

In the light of information provided by Cincinnati, it is presumed New York is attempting to establish whether MAKEBA is presently in New York City. Newark teletype, 4/25/73 in the CARMICHAEL caption, notes CARMICHAEL will be in New York City on that date.

WFO is rechecking INS for any further information as to subject's departures or arrivals in the United States.
